

R	E	A	D
Create five questions about the topic of your text. Answer your questions and provide the page number where the answer was found.	Choose a section from the text. Create 3 questions from the information in that section. Answer them with details from the text.	Create a T-Chart in your notebook as you read. Label one side Questions and the other Answers. Record both as you read.	Before reading your story, write 3 questions you have by looking at the title, front cover, or reading the back. Record any answers you find as you read.
Choose a section or page from your text. What did the section tell you? What questions do you still have?	Read a biography. Write 5 questions that you could answer about the person from the text. Answer each question you write.	Read an informational text about an animal. Write 5 questions that you could answer about the animal. Answer each question you write.	Read an informational text about a place or location. Write 5 questions that you could answer about the place or location. Answer each question you write.

R	E	A	D
Create five questions about the topic of your text. Answer your questions and provide the page number where the answer was found.	Choose a section from the text. Create 3 questions from the information in that section. Answer them with details from the text.	Create a T-Chart in your notebook as you read. Label one side Questions and the other Answers. Record both as you read.	Before reading your story, write 3 questions you have by looking at the title, front cover, or reading the back. Record any answers you find as you read.
Choose a section or page from your text. What did the section tell you? What questions do you still have?	Read a biography. Write 5 questions that you could answer about the person from the text. Answer each question you write.	Read an informational text about an animal. Write 5 questions that you could answer about the animal. Answer each question you write.	Read an informational text about a place or location. Write 5 questions that you could answer about the place or location. Answer each question you write.